- On October 11, 2011, during the Grand Reveil Acadien, the Acadian Museum hosted 70 Acadians from Memramcook, New Brunswick, Canada, led by Richard Laurin, to the Perrin Farm for a Cajun meal of pork and sausage jambalaya prepared by Durphy Landry of Erath. Kermit Bouillion and Neal Hebert grilled fresh pork sausage from Champagnes Supermarket of Erath (that donated many items for the meal). Locals prepared side dishes of sweet potatoes, crawfish salad, green beans, potato salad, rice dressing, fried chicken, pork and beans, bread and a wide variety of delicious deserts. Cajun music was performed by Earl Broussard and D.L. Menard, twice nominated for a Grammy Award.
- On March 16th , the Acadian Museum will again host New York students from N. Y. University in New York studying culinary science. If anyone would like to help out by preparing a dish, please let me know.

- Gary Theall said that the first quarter meeting of the Vermilion Historical Society will be held on Tuesday, January 24, 2012, at the Vermilion Parish Library in Abbeville at 5:30 p.m. After the business meeting, a program will be presented on the Society's collection of early Vermilion Parish postcards.
- John Hernandez, II and I are serving on the New Orleans Event Planning Committee in preparation for the Louisiana Bicentennial.
- According to Ken Walker of the CFMA, Le Cajun Music Award and Festival will be held in Cade on August 16, 17 & 18, 2012. For information, call 337-344-3494.
- A political commercial aired by Gingrich belittles the French language by using one of Louisiana's most common French phrases, Laissez les bons temps rouler - <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tyFaWhygzjQ>. It bashes John Kerry and Mitt Romney for speaking French. We ask that everyone send communications of protest to Gingrich, newspapers, editorial boards, etc.
- Thanks to the efforts of Bernie David, the Acadian Museum is pleased to be hosting members of the Mi'kmaw Nation of Nova Scotia for a spring equinox celebration and traditional sacred pipe ceremony. Special guest will be Norma Muise, L'il Feather, Spiritual Elder, and Keeper of the Sacred Pipe, from Tusket, Nova Scotia.

- John Hernandez, II, President of the Francophone Section of the La. Bar Association, announced that former Supreme Court Justice Michel Bastarache, the first Acadian to serve on the Supreme Court of Canada, will be coming to Lafayette in April to make a presentation to the group's civil law seminar in connection with the state's Bicentennial festivities and Festival International de Louisiane.
- There are a lot of reasons to love Lafayette - the funky, homegrown music scene, the fun-loving people, the family-friendly festivals. But, one of the best reasons to love Lafayette is the food! Young and seasoned chefs alike are building upon their Cajun and Creole roots to create new classic dishes, bringing the freshest ingredients from the farm to the table for your culinary enjoyment. Southern Living magazine has included Lafayette as one of the top 10 "Tastiest Towns in the South" and now it's up to you to make sure Lafayette wins. Cast your vote daily for Lafayette through January 31st and you'll help name the South's Tastiest Town. Plus, you'll be entered for a chance to win a $2,500 cash prize for a trip to any Tasty Town of your choice. Vote now at <http://www.southernliving.com/travel/souths-tastiest-towns-lafayette-0041700> and tell your friends!
- Join Bayou Vermilion District's Vermilionville on Sunday, February 5 from 11 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. as they bring a traditional country Mardi Gras run to the city for their annual Courir de Mardi Gras with the Basile Mardi Gras Association. "This is our heritage, culture and tradition. This is us. This is how we've always done it – to go out and beg, sing, dance and hopefully get everything we need for a gumbo," explains Russell "Potic" Rider – President of the Basile Mardi Gras Association.
- Cinema on the Bayou Festival will run from January 25 through January 29th. For more information visit: www.cinemaonthebayou.com. The featured film Déliverance focuses on the Acadian Resistance. Donovan Richard and Danny Tebeau, the New Brunswick filmmakers, will be present for the U. S. premier of the film on January 25 at 6:30 p.m. at the Acadiana Center of the Arts in Lafayette.
- For an interesting history by Shane Bernard, Ph.D. on the origin of the term Ragin Cajun, visit: <http://bayoutchedispatches.blogspot.com/2012/01/from-jet-fighters-to-football-origin-of.html>.
